SUBSCRIPTIONS-IN ADVANCE.

DELIVERED BY CARRIER. Payable to Collector at end of Month.

DURING the trials of the cases of Powers and of Yoursey at Georgetown, ARTHUR GOEBEL testified that he was a resident of Covington. In the elucidation of the matter reference might be had to the Directory of the city of Cincinnati, issued in the rosy month of June, in the year of grace, 1900, and the reference will disclose the following entries:

Goebel, Arthur (Lowry & Goebel,) 417 Elm street; rooms 431 Elm. Goebel, Justus (Lowry & Goebel,) 417 Elm; h. 1520 Lincoln avenue.

So it appears that, at the best, by the testimony of the Cincinnati Directory, in June, 1900, ARTHUR GOEBEL had his store at 417 Elm street, in the city of Cincinnati, and that his residence rooms were at 431 Elm, while Justus kept his residence at 1520 Lincoln avenue.

Now, what's the matter with placing Mr. ARTHUR GOEBEL along with WEAVER, ANDERSON and NOAKS in the perjury band-wagon?

THE Lexington Herald, whose Editor is one of the most eminent lawyers in the state, thus refers to the Judgeship of the proposed new District in Kentucky-

Herald concerning the personal aspect of this matter. Persons soon pass away. In the past twenty-five yearswe believe-Kentucky has had four Federal Judges. Yet it is of much importance that the President appoint fit J. fige. The Eastern District has a number of admirable lawyers-Republicans, Democrats and Independents who would make acceptable Judges. The District includes the Sandy Valley; the towns and cities on the Ohio river; and such interior towns and cities as Paris, Cynthiana, Georgetown, Winchester, Mt. Sterling, Richmond, Lexington, Frankfort, Danville, Versailles, Lancaster, Stanord, Somerset, and mountain towns ke Barbourville, London, Williamsurg and others; and the President find at these Bars a Judge emily satisfactory—if he will let it be erstood that he intends to appoint a lawyer,—a real, sure enough lawyer a lawyer competent to fill the posirith credit, dignity, competency and incorruptibility-and will not aplawyer who is really only a politician and office-seeker. It was one of the highest qualities of General HARRISON that he tried to select eminent and capable lawyers as Judges. And if the President honestly desites to select a lawyer he can find a fit appointee. Judge LINDSAY -who would make an ideal Judge if he would accept the position-knows the Bar of Kentucky as well or better than any Kentuckian in public life; and if the President were to ask Judge LINDSAY to give him a list of a half he would make no mistake. HE WILL DIE.

Farmer Clemens Had His Skull Fractured By Robbers-Only a Small Amount Secured.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 14.—Rankin Clemens, a farmer of Fayette county whose estate is valued at half million dollars, was brought to a hospital here Sunday night with his skull badly fractured. Robbers visited his home Saturday night, called him to the door and broke his skull with a hay fork. They attempted to force their way into his house but women within barricaded the doors. Only a small amount of money was secured

About 11,000,000 bushels of coal left from the man's pockets. He will die. According to the story of Mrs. Robert Clemens, his daughter-in-law, who, with her children, reside with Clemens, he was sitting in front of the fire at 8 o'clock Saturday night when some one called him to the door. Clemens went first to the window and Captain Pres. Ellison is negotiating talked with the stranger, who said for the purchase of the Monongahela that he wanted to see him about some for the purchase of the Monongaheia that he wanted to see him about some favorite. It is pleasant and safe for children to river packet Elizabeth, which he will hogs. She put him to bed and attended his wounds as best she could until daylight, when she sent for a physician. It was found that his skull had been fractured.

The detectives found two bricks and a pitchfork handle on the porch in a great pool of blood.

It was also found that Clemens' pocket-books and papers are missing. What amount of money he had with him is not known. He had just sold a large lot of cattle, and it is presumed he had a very considerable amount on his person.

Rankin Clemens is 75 years old, and is worth fully $500,000. He owns 1,500 acres of the finest blue grass land in this section, and holds mortgages on many pieces of the most valuable property in Fayette county. Every penny of his possessions he made by hard work on his farm, by selling the products of his farm at the most opportune moment and by lending money at good interest on the best of securities.
